WILL FORM LEAGUE.

Local Bowlers Take Steps to Form League With Northwen Cities.

A systematic attempt is being made by C. H. Cosby, manager of the Luke Sowing Aleys, to organize a bowling league with teams picked from the best players in the cities of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Norfolk Wilmington and Pichimond. With the great interest taken in the sport during the last few years, it is hoped that the league will be a thing of fact as well as fensy.

Interest in the sport is increasing and on the local alleys many good scores were made during the past weak. On the Luke Alleys the highest score in tenpine was made by C. H. Cosby, with 212, while C. Vaden annayed the duckpins, with 153. H. B. Black had high-score on the goosepins, with 112.

At the Newport Alleys, a five-man has been organized by James Bailey, one of the meat consistent years bowlers in the city. The team, which is composed of Spilling (capitally, Williams, Bailey, Rowsey and Kolle, hope to wrest the State champtonship from the crack Roanoke team, whom they have challenged. The series will be relied on the Newport Alleys ones a week.

High score records were broken on these alleys during the past week, Mentine leading sixteen men over the 200 mark with 249. In the ducks Rey-Teey led, with a score of 135.
